

General Semantics Conferences/Congresses

1. March 1935: First American Congress, Ellensburg, WA, Central Washington College of Education (now Central Washington University)
2. August 1-2, 1941: Second American Congress, Denver, CO, University of Denver
3. July 22-24, 1949: Third American Congress, Denver, CO, University of Denver
4. June 22-23, 1951: First Conference on General Semantics, Chicago, IL (sponsored by ISGS)
5. June 10-12, 1954: Second Conference on General Semantics, St. Louis, MO, Washington University (sponsored by ISGS)
6. August 24-27, 1958: International Conference on General Semantics, Mexico City, Mexico, Mexico City College (jointly sponsored by ISGS and IGS)
7. July 31 – August 4, 1960: International Conference on General Semantics, Honolulu, HA
8. August 13-16, 1963: “International Communications, Its Problems and Its Opportunities”, New York City, New York University
9. August 9-13, 1965: San Francisco State College
10. August 5-9, 1968: (referred to as the “Eleventh Conference on General Semantics”) Denver, CO, Denver Hilton Hotel
11. March 17-19, 1977: “Semantic Environments in Symbolic Ecology” (“first conference since 1968”), St. Louis, MO, Washington University
12. October 26-28, 1979: “Alfred Korzybski Centennial Conference on General Semantics”, New York City, Columbia University
13. August 11-14, 1980: (referred to as the “Twelfth”) Toronto, Ontario, Canada; Ontario Institute for Studies in Education
14. August 16-18, 1985: “Building Bridges through General Semantics” (referred to as the “10th”), La Jolla, CA, University of California – La Jolla
15. July 27-31, 1988: “Enhancing Your Capabilities for the Future” (referred to as the “10th”), New Haven, CN, Yale University
16. November 2-4, 1995: “Developing Sanity in Human Affairs” (referred to as the “Eleventh International Interdisciplinary Conference on General Semantics”), Hempstead, NY, Hofstra University